

Markham-Unionville Updates

September 19, 2022 - On this solemn day, I joined not only our province, but the world in commemorating the extraordinary life of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, the Queen of Canada.

Her Majesty touched the hearts of many and will forever set an example of true leadership.

Our thoughts and prayers remain with King Charles III and the entire Royal Family. Long Live the King!

Echoing the Minister of Labour, Immigration, Training and Skills Development's mandate of keeping Ontario workers safe on the job, I was happy to meet with Mr. Norm Nopper, a Markham-Unionville resident and to listen to his ideas on labour safety.

Happy 80th Birthday and 85th Birthday to Mr. Sham Sunder Arora and Ms. Mary Smissen respectively! Send us your birthday/anniversary/milestone celebrations - we're happy to bring you a Certificate marking your special moments.

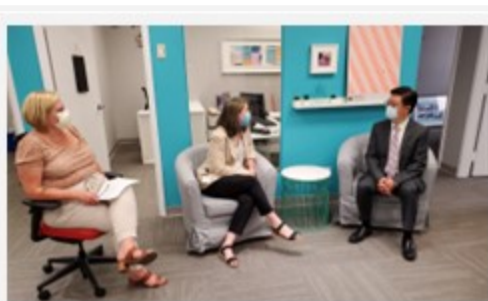

I had the pleasure of meeting with Dr. Adrian Chow, a Chiropractor in Markham-Unionville. Chiropractors play an important role in our healthcare system and I was grateful to learn about their care and what my office can do to help their practices and fellow Ontarians.

Moon Festival Open House - On the day of this special festival, we delightedly met and greeted many Markham-Unionville residents, and celebrated this Lunar Calendar Festival together!

Stakeholders

I was excited to visit Spotwork, in Markham-Unionville and to learn about their employment platform that is helping people find their ideal jobs

United Way Greater Toronto has been well known for its many community services across the GTA and I was glad to visit their York Region office in Markham-Unionville.

I welcomed and congratulated KMB Law for the grand opening of their Markham office, for creating job opportunities locally and for bringing their expertise to the people in Markham-Unionville and beyond.

Cowboy Fitness - Congratulations on their 7th Anniversary and Grand Opening of their Markham flagship centre that provides modern fitness facilities and boosts our economy by offering new job opportunities.

A great welcome to Ivy Express Education Foundation as they hosted their 2022 Ivy League Elite Seminar to provide information on College choices in the US for our local students.

I was thrilled to see the Philharmonic Music and Art Centre's continuing enthusiasm in bringing up our future musicians at their ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Awards

I was honored to present the Premier's scroll to celebrate the Jinnah Awards Ceremony, 2022. These Jinnah Awards recognize Canadians and Canadians of Pakistani origin who have made remarkable contributions to peace, justice, equality, and multiculturalism in their leadership roles.

At Queen's Park

I was proud to rise in the House to deliver a petition that urges all members to continue investing in the manufacturing sector that will contribute to the economic success of the province. watch here

I welcomed Page Evan Hu from Don Cousens Catholic School and his parents to Queen's Park. Page program allows students to serve in the Legislature and learn about Ontario's Parliament and the legislative process.

In my Member's Statements, I thanked my constituents for giving me the honour to continue to serve them. Together, let's continue to build Ontario. watch here

Provincial Updates

Our government is bringing back weekend GO Transit service between Toronto and Niagara Falls with 2 round trips each day. more info

With our new online services, Ontarians can apply to renew & replace lost or stolen Accessible Parking Permits from the comfort of their home. more info
